After finishing school I decided to study psychology and entered Cherkasy National University os Boghdan Khmelnytsky, practical psychology department. Since I was a little kid I was surrounded with psychologists. Since the first course at the university I took part in international conferences at Moscow state university by M. Lomonosov, International institute of Deep Psychology in Kiev), etc. It all was real for me as my mum is also a psychologist, it influenced my choice when deciding the future occupation. When at 5th course of the university I had a chance to work as a psychologist at school, where I've been working for 1 year and a half. I combined my work at school with working on my masters diploma. The topic of it was "Diagnosis and Psychocorrection of Depressive Conditions" Having passed all the examination I will become a graduate student since 1st of October 2015 in the Cherkasy National University. 6.	Tudor-Vladut Enea Dimitrie Cantemir University in Romania; Pedagogue in Magleby School Center; Romania		Tudor Vladut Enea - I have graduated Dimitrie Cantemir University in Romania and now I am working as a pedagogue in Magleby School Center, a school for children from disadvantaged backgrounds. The integration of migrants and refugees is of great importance for the staff of this school, as most of the children come from refugee and migrant families. In the last three years I was enrolled in a program Fighting with the Poor at One World University, Hornsjo, Norway. The focus of the program was to get familiar with the issues connected to poverty and to get prepared to work in the humanitarian field. During this time, I had the chance to visit humanitarian projects in countries from South-East Asia and to work for six months together with Smaranda Cioban in the Academy for Working Children Malviya Nagar, Jaipur, India, a school founded by Humana People to People India in their project to improve access to education of children from poor communities. It was a great experience, helping us discover a new face of the world and also opened our eyes about the major struggles of nowadays, such as: poverty, migration,

			unemployment, overpopulation. Tu26dor@gmail.com

I am delivering lectures on Special Pedagogy, Inclusive Education, Speech Therapy and supervise the students' research works as well. Our department collaborates with the Resource Center at one of the main Pedagogical Universities of Kazakhstan drawing attention to the solution of the problem of socialization and re-socialization of children with disabilities. I am eager for technological skills, communication skills, leadership skills and always motivated to take up new challenges. So, I would like to initiate new projects regarding the protection and assistance of the refugee and displaced children, their adaptation and reintegration that will promote the prospects for forming within the population a culture of tolerance. Dinara-taraz@mail.ru

UNITWIN is the abbreviation for the University Twinning and Networking Programme. The Programme was established in 1992 following the relevant decision of UNESCO's General Conference taken at its 26th session.

The UNITWIN/UNESCO Chairs Programme was conceived as a way to advance research, training and programme development in all of UNESCO's fields of competence by building university networks and encouraging inter-university cooperation through the transfer of knowledge across borders. Since it was established in 1992, the programme has aroused great interest among Member States.
