

Title of course: Diversity Forum. Intefaitth Dialog and Education for Peace

Lecturer: prof. Anna Odrowąż-Coates

Teaching language: English

Course description: The course will pertain to the aspects of diversity that are a baseline for interfaith dialogue and education for peace. We will look for barriers to interfaith dialogue and the barriers to education for peace. We will focus at the benefits that diversity offers and for the management of diversity and driving education for peace through interfaith dialogue, understanding, awareness and sensitivity. Empathy and emotional intelligence will be considered as tools for diversity management on a policy level and on an individual level. The course will draw from the sociology of religion, critical and social pedagogy, as well as elements of other social science disciplines.

Assessment (ZO): To pass weekly presence and active participation are required. Students may expect small weekly tasks for self-study, and a final essay or research report.