

13th UNESCO Janusz Korczak Chair International Summer School

"In Korczak's footsteps (Korczak's heritage and philosophy of education)"

The interdisciplinary academic course is provided in English and is aimed mainly at educators and researchers towards key skills development

Draft content 14-18.09.2020

Theme	Hours
Main Korczak's philosophical ideas	2
Korczak as global philosopher of education and childhood	3
Reflectivity practice with Korczak's lenses	2
In Korczak's footsteps around Warsaw - field workshop	10
The idea of self-governance and responsibility of a child: newspaper, court	5
Bobo, the infant perspective (Lecture and workshop)	3
Field workshops: 'critically' about Korczak	6
Korczak inspired Convention on Children's Rights	3
Stories and novels by Korczak	4
Reflective feedback – Korczak's toolkit for self-assessment	2
Contact hours total	40

Place of study: Maria Grzegorzewska University in Warsaw, field workshops in institutions located in the city of Warsaw.

Expressions of interest: unescochair@aps.edu.pl;

Recruitment closes on the 14.05.2020

Participation cost: 450 PLN (approx. 120 euro) per person.
It covers course materials, content tuition and course certificates.
It does not cover accommodation or subsistence.

Janusz Korczak PRIZE for GLOBAL SOUTH, (Funded by the Rector of Maria Grzegorzewska University). There will be a possibility to enter a competition for 2 scholarships; dedicated to scholars from the global South. The competition rules and eligibility will be announced shortly.

